Returning for a 12th season at locations throughout the North Bay, Film Night in the Park provides a pleasant summertime way to watch movies in the all-outdoors -- without all that door-slamming and exhaust fumeage you used to get at ye olden drive-in theater. The casual theme this year is 'What a Character!' with selections paying tribute to character actors (in particular, Ruth Gordon and Martin Balsam) who invariably brightened the screen whether playing big roles or small. To that end, we'll get Gordon's definitive role as one half of 'Harold and Maude' (July 18) and Balsam's memorable supporting roles in 'Breakfast at Tiffany's' (July 12) and 'Psycho' (August 29). Elsewhere, the schedule provides plenty of entertainment mostly suitable for the whole family, with numerous animated features and classic comedies. -- Dennis Harvey
