We miss drive-ins...yeah, there are still a few left, but not nearly enough. There's nothing like watching movies in the open air (or air-conditioned car air). But the next best thing -- if not an even better thing -- is offered by this 11th season of North Bay film nights in various park sites from Mill Valley to Point Reyes Station. It offers a wide gamut of family-friendly pics ranging from very recent hits (the animated 'Chicken Run,' live-action charmer 'October Sky') to Disney hits old ('Snow White') and new ('Tarzan'). Plus a whole lotta old-school Hollywood classics, including that big hunk o' gun-totin' man Gary Cooper in 'High Noon,' Dorothy & Co. in 'The Wizard of Oz,' Cary Grant in peril in Hitchcock's 'North by Northwest,' Dustin Hoffman in drag in 'Tootsie,' Gene Kelly 'Singin' in the Rain,' John Travola singin' in 'Grease,' and Gene Wilder oompa-loompin' in 'Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory.' A personal recommendation: Do not miss Preston Sturges' brilliant 1943 'Sullivan's Travels' (August 23), one of the best movies Hollywood ever made about Hollywood. -- Dennis Harvey
